“ You were a wonderful mother! I will always cherish the memories we shared. You taught your children, grandchildren, and many more about the Bible and God's amazing love. I miss you more than words can say but I know you are with our Lord and Savior! I can't wait until we are all together again. I love you Momma.

“ Memories Pressed Between the Pages of My Mind.” There are so many from the past 38 years. How I loved to hear her tell the stories from her families early years. I will pass them on to my grand daughter. Everytime I play the Rolly-rolly game with Lillyan, I'll think of Agnes. In still quiet hours of the early morning I will think of her and our facebook talks. I will miss sharing our special spiritual bond. Now I will only have her in my heart, life just want be the same without her encouraging words. I know she is in heaven watching over us, and I'm sure I'll see her looking at me through our little Lilly's face. I think Joe was needing her more than anything. And that is why God took her home. They are together now and will have no more pain and suffering. I know I'll see them again when it's my turn to go home. Until then they will be in my heart and on my mind everyday.”

“ My Aunt Agnes has been a warrior against cancer for many years. But cancer never defined who she was. She was a loving, sweet, wonderful aunt. As I became an adult she was also an amazing friend. She always greeted you with a smile and asked how you were. When I married Doug she embraced him as a nephew and a loved one. She made him feel like he was right where he belonged. I remember in particular a family reunion at her house and the two of them making each other throw their heads back and laugh. She loved her family and her friends. Her family and friend will miss her.

“ When you hear the word unselfish I think of Agnes. When I hear the word christian I think of Agnes. When I hear the words share, laughter, fun and love I think of Agnes. I a going to miss her terribly. We talked often through email since we lived so far apart. She loved family and nothing was more important to her. I know without a doubt she i an angel in heaven and will be watching over us all. I love you my sweet sweet aunt agnes.
