In lieu of flowers the family request donations be made to First United Methodist Church, Hico, Texas

Carolyn Wyman Arrington died at the age of 83 in Hico, Texas. She was born on February 6, 1929 to Mable and Harry Wyman. She was the middle of three sisters and had one brother. Born in Cairo, Illinois, Carolyn spent her youth in Kentucky. There she met Roy R. Arrington and they married June 1, 1948. Carolyn attended the University of Kentucky, the University of Texas and received her Masters Degree from Baylor University. Carolyn taught special education for many years in Texas, and was passionate about teaching children to read. Always the teacher. Carolyn loved Mexico, and during the last few years, enjoyed many long trips to her beloved San Migel. She started Folkloria Hico, teaching many children the dances of their native country. She designed and sewed each costume herself. Carolyn was a published author, and in later years, began painting. Her art work was of places she had been in Mexico and of dogs. She painted over 150 different dog paintings in her last years, with all proceeds donated to dog rescue.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her mother and father, husband Roy, son David and brother Gene.

She is survived by her Sister, Ann Hagood of Paducah Kentucky and Doris Wilson of Michigan City, Indiana. One daughter, Suzanne; son, Tommy; grandchildren and her beloved dog Marco.

Special thanks to all her many friends. The Hico Clinic and the Hico Care Center for the wonderful care and support.
