“ When I think of Cyndi I think of her beautiful smile with that big loving heart of hers. She was a great listener, always warm in her embrace & always looking for the best out of people & life. She was someone that could be counted on & the kind of friend that aspired others on what a friend looks like. My condolences to all of her family & friends that loved her. I pray that you all will find the comfort that only God can provide. Love her!-- P.J. & family.
