

Debra Singleton

April 21, 1959 - January 7, 2018

Debra Bell Singleton Debra was born totally naked and loudly voicing her opinion of the situation on April 20, 1959, in Arlington, Texas to Dan and Nadine Bell. Being the 6th child in the family she quickly learned, as a matter of necessity, to stand up and stand out in the Bell household lest she might not get another plate of her Daddy's delicious Sunday morning pancakes. Debra never met a stranger and was always eager to strike up a conversation with the nearest person. She liked to laugh a lot too. In addition to her chatty ways and frequent outbursts of laughter, she was always willing to jump in and help anyone whether it was to plan a party, catch a loose cow, deal with an adverse situation, offer advice or just be a sounding board. Debra married Claude Singleton and produced three children, Mary, Teresa, and Daniel. After the death of Claude, she married Johnny Chick who took in those three youngsters and helped raise them as his own. Debra and Johnny loved to dance, loved to entertain, loved their children and loved each other. Debra went to sleep on January 7, 2018, to dance in the stars with her beloved Johnny. Debra was preceded in death by her husbands Claude Singleton and Johnny Chick, and her father Dan Bell. She is survived by her children Mary Smith, Teresa Singleton and Daniel Singleton, stepson Jerry Chick and her mother Nadine Bell and siblings Donna Leary, Dan Bell, Wendell Bell, Sherry Bell, Lisabeth Donley, Marty Bell and Jimmy Bell as well as eight grandchildren and lots of nieces and nephews. At her request, instead of a traditional service, a Celebration of Life will be held in Debra's honor on the 27th of January, details to follow. In lieu of flowers please offer a helping hand to someone in need.
