“ Donald Lee Mitchell married my mother upon his release from prison in 1977. Donald Lee Mitchell was a monster who repeatedly raped me from the time I was 8 years old. I believe he raped my younger sister as well. He beat my young brother. In a single night destroyed my mothers business. We left San Diego like thieves in the night due to his crimes. We went on a cross country trip that will forever be burned in my memory. Ended up in Kenneth Missouri where his family lived. His father was a beast who also loved little girls. Practically all 17 of his siblings had also been in prison. My mother ran from him to Michigan where he showed up and raped me at knife point. He left again but terrorized us by phone and other things for several years. I'm sure he is burning in hell and I wish I could be there to pour on some gasoline

“ This photo was probably taken in prison. This man was a complete monster who destroyed the childhoods of myself and my siblings . Physically raped and tortured us and then terrorized and haunted us for years. May he burn in hell for eternity
