“ My husband, Ken and I have been friends with Eva and her husband Dick, for many many years.

We are very sad that Eva has gone from us and our hearts are with Dick during this time of sorrow. We will all meet up again and what a party that will be.

Our yankee transplant, with her New York accent was always fun to be with. She shared her love of horses, dogs and cats and other animals with us. She enjoyed her visits to our ranch and talking together for hours.

Eva is missed very much and always will be.
