“ We're all going to miss you, Dad. Thank you for always being there to help with everything from building a fence to fixing a car, how to keep a knife sharp, shuttling obnoxious grandchildren & their friends around, and helping to calm Mom down! Most of all, thank you for the example of your life and your unquestioning love and constant support.

Heaven had better straighten up because they're getting a new drill sergeant! Lines had better be straight and shoes had better be shined!

*Love you, Dad!
