

Joanne Edith Randall

April 20, 2021 - April 27, 2021

Joanne Edith Randall, the infant daughter born on April 20, 2021 to Fabiola “Faby” Neftali Randall and James Ryder Randall of Granbury, Texas, went on to become an angel in Heaven on April 27, 2021 in Fort Worth Texas.

Baby “JoJo” was deeply prayed for, and each moment of her brief but precious life will forever be dearly cherished memories by her parents. Having been told that it was impossible for Faby to be able to have a child, it was a miracle that even for just a week, Faby and James had the joy of holding their own special little blessing, who fought fiercely during her short life here on earth.

Joanne was preceded in death by her paternal grandfather, William Hardey Randall III, and by her maternal great-grandfather, Leopoldo “Polo” Zuniga.

Joanne is survived by her parents, and by her maternal grandparents Martin and Norma Edith Morales of Hico, TX, and her paternal grandmother, Daisy Mae Randall of Rogersville, TN. Great grandparents who survive Joanne include her maternal great grandmother, Alejandra Torres Zuniga of Hico, TX, and paternal great grandparents Harold and Ellen McCoy of Rogersville, TN, and Joanne and Michael Laviola of Westminster, Maryland. Also surviving are Baby Joanne’s loving aunts and uncles: William Randall IV of Rogersville, TN, and Marisol Morales, Mariela Morales, and Ricardo Marin Morales all of Hico,

TX. Many great-aunts and uncles as well as a host of cousins, also survive and mourn the loss of Baby Joanne with the family.

Visitation and Rosary 10-11 a.m., Saturday, May 1 at Harvest Hills Funeral Home, Hico, TX, followed by a Graveside Service, 11:00 a.m., Saturday, May 1 at Country Oaks Cemetery, Hico, TX.
