

Judy Putty Wyatt Bowden

September 25, 1953 - October 25, 2015

Judy Putty Wyatt Bowden passed away peacefully in Hico, Texas, on October 25, 2015. Judy was born September 25, 1953, in Bryan, Texas, to Dr. Johnny Putty and Harlean Sue Duncan Putty. She graduated from Hico High School in 1971 and attended Texas A & M University. In 1982, she married Robert (Bob) Wyatt on the campus of Texas A & M University. They moved to the Houston area where they were blessed with two children before moving to Hico in 2002. Judy loved animals, always had a dog or cat and loved to spend time on the family ranch and had a full life.

Bob preceded her in death in 2002. Judy is survived by husband Chuck Bowden, son Jonathan Wyatt of College Station and daughter Jessica Wyatt of Huntsville. She is also survived by her father and step-mother, Johnny and Lee Putty; sister Jackie Putty Fouts; brothers Jamie Putty and Kyle Putty; several nieces and nephews.

Instead of flowers the family asks that donations be made to favorite charity.

“ A beautiful, spirited and loving friend passed away last night. Judi Wyatt, mother of Jessica Wyatt and Jonathan Wyatt passed during the night. She was the owner of J. Putty's Pizza with her husband Bob who passed away several years before her. I was blessed with her friendship and love since I met her when I was in High school. I began babysitting Jonathan 3 and Jessica 1 every Tuesday, Thursday, And summer until I graduated from college and Jonathan was in High School. They remain a huge piece of my life and I am grateful for knowing them... Tina Hinze Richards
