

Linda Lee Stockstill

June 26, 1939 - January 29, 2021

Linda Lee Stockstill of Hico, Texas passed away at the age of 81, on January 29th. She was born June 26, 1939 in Stephenville, Texas to Doyle and Juanita (Snow) Cavitt. She attended school in Huckaby, Texas, where she graduated in 1957. A year later, Linda married Cotton Stockstill in 1958, and enjoyed 60 years together until his death in 2018. Linda and Cotton's marriage was blessed with three lovely daughters, who added grandchildren and great-grandchildren to the family fold for "Maw" to love and spoil. Linda's greatest accomplishments in life were being an amazing wife to Cotton, and an amazing "Mamma" to her children. She took great pride in her family, loving her kids and grandkids more than life itself. Linda also loved gardening, farming, and cooking as an extension of love for her family.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents, and by her husband, Cotton Stockstill; by her sister, Judy Cavitt; and by her brothers in law, Charles Whitefield and Jackson Stockstill.

She is survived by her beloved daughters: Cindy Anderson of Prior, OK, Melanie Black and husband Kenneth of Hico, and Melissa Koonsman of Hico.

Linda is also survived by her grandchildren: Tanner and Ashley Cope of Comer, GA, Teri and Zack Wood of Decatur, TX, and Crystal and Bobby Anderson of Prior, OK. Also surviving are her great-grandchildren: Maddison Wood, Lucas Paul Leon Anderson, Bobby Paul Anderson Jr., Raelee Grace Anderson, and Reagan and Kinsley Cope.

Linda's sisters, Audrey (John) Musgrove and Pam Whitefield survive her, as do her brother-in-law Eli (Vicki) Stockstill, and sister-in-law Elaine Stockstill.

Linda's godson, Lee Scott of Austin, TX, as well as numerous nieces and nephews, also survive.
