“ Altho Bill and I have known each other for about 55 years, I had never met Marcia until last June. We stopped by on the way back to Arizona to visit Bill and met Marcia. She was very friendly and had a way of truly making one welcome. I know Bill will miss her very much. It is comforting to know that she is a christian and is now without pain; walking with the saints and in the presence of the Lord.

“ Sometimes we meet someone and immediately feel a kinship. That's how it was when I met Marcia. We only had the one visit but we laughed and talked as though we had known one another always. She was a very warm and loving person with a sense of humor, and her priorities were her husband Bill, her children and grandchildren. What a huge and happy reunion that will be when they all meet in Heaven.
