“ Ah my dear neighbor. She gave me the first day ole chicks I ever owned. She told me my well needed leathers and I promptly went to the feed store and asked for "rubbers". Duh! She was the only trick or treat stop for my kids and always had something for them. As a city kid alone in the country, she saved me on more than one occasion. My first friend here. She told me about the first sonic boom she ever heard and that she grabbed up the kids and got under the house. What a strong, hard working Fairy girl.
