

Mark Dunlap

June 15, 1945 - January 27, 2016

Mark Dunlap, born June 16, 1945, in Iredell, Texas to parents Austin and Viva (Sawyer) Dunlap. Mark passed away Wednesday January 27, 2016 at Plaza Medical Center in Fort Worth surrounded by his family.

Mark was a graduate of Iredell High School. He worked for the City of Hico and then for Hamilton County before retiring. Mark met his “cell-mate” Anita Mood. Mark loved spending time with his children and grandchildren. Mark loved sitting under a shade tree drinking a cold beer with his friends. Mark enjoyed watching sports, eating Mexican food, chocolate covered cherries, and banana pudding for desert. Mark had a fondness for snuff and could be seen around town in his pick-up truck wearing his sunglasses and Hico Building Supplies cap with a smile and a “How are ya’ll today”. Mark was known for being quick to lend a helping hand to those in need. His love and positive attitude will be greatly missed.

Preceding Mark in death his parents, brothers, Roy, Raymond and infant brother Royce. Surviving Mark are his wife, Anita Moody, children Janet Perez and husband Trey of Iredell, Dusty Moody and wife Virginia of Stephenville, Frank Rust and wife Sara of Oregon, Sherry Oswald and husband Lonnie of Iowa. Mark is also survived by 11 grandchildren, Katlyn, Katie and Kiley Perez, Jones, Jayden and Jacob Moody, Paige Cole-Rankin and Dakota Rust, Coved, Britt and Drake Oswald.
