

Michal Lourin Read

January 13, 1962 - January 27, 2018

Michal Read, the daughter of Steven and Janet Read of Durban, South Africa will be laid to rest at 11 am Wednesday morning, January 31, 2018. In the 1990s, Michal Read emigrated from South Africa to Israel where she lived and studied for almost a decade. It was there that she became part of the Karaite faith. In 2001, she immigrated to the United States and settled in Hico, TX. Michal is preceded in death by both parents, but is survived by her former in-laws, Scooter and Patricia Tankersley, who loved her dearly and provided her with a family.

Cemetery Details

Millerville Cemetery

Hico, TX

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 30. 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM (CT)

Harvest Hills Funeral Home
118 Second Street
Hico, TX 76457
(254) 796-4722
info@harvesthillsfuneralhome.com
<https://www.harvesthillsfuneralhome.com/>

Graveside Services

JAN 31. 11:00 AM (CT)

Millerville Cemetery
Hico, TX

Tribute Wall

LG

“ Today marks 6 years, 6 long years since you passed. You are so much missed. I often think about you, the wonderful times we have had in Israel, the many hours of phone chats when we found ourself in the west if only I can see you again. Rest in Peace my dearest Michal - Linda Geldenhuys

Linda Geldenhuys - January 27, 2024 at 09:29 PM

LG

“ My heart is broken in so many pieces. Michal, today, after so many years searching for you, my search ended. You will be so missed my friend. May you rest in peace. Linda Geldenhuys

Linda Geldenhuys - August 16, 2022 at 05:11 PM

AA

“ I was so sorry to hear of your passing through our mutual friend Donald W. I'm a little stunned. You were lively and curious and so very involved in the world around you - I deeply regret not knowing you better. May your family and friends find comfort in your memory.

Andrea (Ahuva) Alexander - March 07, 2018 at 08:06 PM

DI

“ Michal, I met you here in Israel and will always remember you (and prefer to remember you) as a faithful convert and adherent to Judaism. You so impressed everyone as a gioret, as well as with your willingness to help others and be a real friend to so many. We had a lot of fun that Purim that you, Shoshana and I dressed up (you and Shoshana made up like mice and with your signs "Jews for Cheeses" and me dressed as "Pope Pulari", lol)! I will also never forget the time that we were both invited to Josh and Jenny's for Friday night Shabbat meal, then headed into the Old City and to the Kotel that night, which happened to be the night of Y2K, to see if anything would change that night!! And I still miss all the nice times we hung out together with other friends, in your lovely little apt. close to me, after coming back from a Shabbat meal... I'm sorry you went astray from being an observant Jew, but you obviously thought this was the best route for you. Now that you are in the World of Truth, you "see" things very differently... The G-d of Israel should abundantly bless your soul forever and ever, Michal, and have mercy on you! I'll never forget you! May our memories of you always be for a great blessing. With love and sadness, Dina

Dina - February 04, 2018 at 08:45 AM

RO

“ Michal,
You are going missed, I love how you always was protective of me, you were there for me the hardest time of my life. I just wished we had met in person, you would have been amazing to meet in person. I can't even put it into words how I am going to miss you.

roxanna - January 31, 2018 at 08:56 PM

JS

“ I knew her, only a few short years, as Hippilily Michal and we met on facebook. I found her authentic, honest, funny, generous, kind and I could go on with the epithets. We seemed to have so much in common and when we disagreed I enjoyed that too. Guns? I have no idea, being a European, this is alien to me but who am I disagree?

I found myself confiding in her and she really gave of herself to help me and I hope at times I was able to do the same for her. I trusted her implicitly.

I never met her face to face but still would call her one of my closest friends. I never told her did she know what she meant to me? I wanted to go to USA one day to meet her, but I never told her this either. I will miss her. Baruch Dayan ha'emet judith sharp - January 31, 2018 at 06:25 AM

DG

“ Lolly, when I met you in 1978 it was you, Amedeo and myself against the world.

We grew together and shared so many first experiences, smoking, Nobese, driving lessons.....I am so glad that we managed to be in touch so much lately and it was so nice to hear that Janet always credited me for getting her to understand and bring you two closer.

I have so many memories of you it's impossible to ever forget you.

I love you and Amedeo has asked me to echo that. XXX

Don Goedegebuur - January 31, 2018 at 06:10 AM

JB

Hippily we only knew each other from Facebook. I hope you liked the Chanukah greeting. Rest in peace.

Jeffrey S Burns - February 03, 2018 at 08:44 AM

LG

She is so very much missed by so many

Linda Geldenhuys - August 16, 2022 at 05:16 PM