“ PJ you are going to be greatly missed, my cancer buddy. I have no one to take your place to bad mouth these doctors for doing all this crap to us and getting nowhere. You are the lucky one who will have no more suffering or pain to deal with; now you can eat and drink whatever the heck you want!! Oh PJ, I'm really missing you. You were they only one that knew the pain I was dealing with after each surgery. I know you'll be looking down on me and pushing through. Rest In Peace now my Cuz! I love you, Mary

“ I am so blessed to have you you come into my life. I am so grateful my husband introduced me to you. We got to so close. Your family. It makes my heart happy to know you are no longer in pain but my heart also hurts knowing we lost such a beautiful soul. A strong warrior, a brother, a friend, and one of the nicest men I know. He would give his shirt off his back for anyone. We love you Paul Mac. Till we ride again on the best the ride of a life time. Where the weather is beautiful and the road is perfect. -Steph, Jamie, and the kiddos

“ My dear friend Paul Mac. You and I have been friends for a very long time. We referred to each other as life long friends. And sir, that's exactly what we are. You have always been the strong out going , loving brother man. Anyone who has ever known you would agree. Daddy O' was one of a kind. Thank you for your friendship and brotherly love and know I as many others will always remember you. I love you brother. Rest In Peace my brother. Rest in peace. . You are the best friend I could have ever had.
