

Quata Adkison Cavitt Rainwater

May 26, 1941 - December 31, 2019

Quata Adkison Cavitt Rainwater, born May 26, 1941 in Iredell, Texas to parents Travis and Opal Adkison, passed away in Hico, Texas with her family and friends by her side. Quata was known by many names, “Baby”, “Momma”, “Aunt KK”, “Nannie”, or “Quata Jean” by her friends and family. Quata was a Graduate of Hico High School, Class of 1959. Quata worked as a transcriptionist for Hico, Hamilton, DeLeon, Stephenville and Comanche.

Quata married Gene Arthur Cavitt on July 28, 1960, raising their two daughters, enjoying life together until his passing on March 7, 1990.

Quata married her high school sweetheart, Buddy Rainwater on April 27, 2002, spending 10 years together before his passing on February 28, 2012.

Quata Jean loved her family! She was the best Nannie to her grandchildren and great grandchildren, she attended every event they had! She enjoyed listening to music and dancing. Quata most loved the music of Elvis, and Alan Jackson. She was a member of the Hico First Baptist Church. Quata’s laughing and having fun with those who knew her will be greatly missed.
