

Richard Anthony Mancuso

December 27, 1937 - August 29, 2024

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ My husband, Kenny, and I have been friends with Richard “Dick”, and his vibrant wife, Eva, for many years. I first met them on my wedding day 6/3/06. My husband has known them for many years as his hay customers. We would go visit them and their horses, Tank, Sarge, Sassy and Chelsea. I know that Dick’s heart broke when Tank, Sarge and Sassy past away. And he bought a friend for Chelsea named Lucky . Those horses would do whatever Dick asked them to do. And he love visiting our ranch to enjoy our 3 horses and give us precious advice about them. We went to visit with Dick a few days before he past and we enjoyed our visit with him. He had made his peace with God and was ready to go. We will miss him so very much. He was a wonderful person and a man that would have loved it if he had been born a hundred years earlier and lived the life of a cowboy. Our sympathy and prayers go to Dicks children .
God Bless
Kenny and Janet Burnette

---

Janet Burentte - September 17, 2024 at 10:57 PM

DG

“ Richard was a great guy. We were close neighbors for the past 12 years and distant neighbors for 30 years. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for a friend or neighbor. He was tough as nails about things he thought was wrong and as gentle as Velvet with his animals. He loved his horses and every day I could see him riding them out in the pasture or cleaning out the stalls. Although "Dick" was a small man in stature he had the heart of giant. We will miss you in person but you will always be in our hearts.

---

David Goupil - August 31, 2024 at 07:08 PM