

Samuel Grant Morgan

August 10, 1987 - August 28, 2016

Sergeant Samuel Grant Morgan "Sam" died suddenly on August 28, 2016 near Ft. Campbell, Kentucky, where he was stationed. He was 29 years old. Called "Grant" by his family, he was born in San Angelo, Texas on August 10, 1987. He was gifted with a brilliant mind and a deep love of learning. His appetite for knowledge was insatiable. Drawn equally to fiction and non-fiction, he was a voracious reader; fascinated by science and computers, he had recently engineered his own radio decoder and left behind a long line of disassembled computer equipment and other machines. Sam joined the United States Army in 2009 where his keen intellect earned him a spot in the prestigious Defense Language Institute of Monterey, California. Graduating with a high level of fluency in Arabic, Sam proudly served his country in the Army's intelligence unit by providing information that kept his fellow soldiers and countrymen safe and sound. He was held in the highest regards by his senior officers, respected by his fellow soldiers, loved deeply by his family, and will be missed dearly by all who knew him.

Despite his brilliance and successes in the Army, Sam struggled with his place in the world, and was intensely private.

Sam is preceded in death by his brothers John Joseph Morgan and Daniel Morgan. He is survived by mother Teresa Morgan of Ft. Worth; father Dr. Hardy Morgan of Hamilton; sister Margaret Morgan Steele and her husband

Jay Steele of Southlake; his brothers and their wives, Dr. James and Lyndsey Morgan of Chad, Africa; Robert Morgan and Sarah Ciaccia of Washington, DC; and Dr. Thomas and Carley Morgan of Chattanooga. He is also survived by his grandmother, Lamonte Efird of Hot Springs, Arkansas.

“ The first time I met Sam I wasn't sure how to take him, he was quiet and a observer. As I got to know him I found he was quite Funny a great listener and a good friend. He will be missed but never forgotten. Prayers are with his family.

“ Sgt Morgan was a caring, and hard working individual. He was a great example of what a Non Commisioned Officer is all about that soldiers looked up to. He is greatly missed by all that were fortunate to cross his path. The core of Non Commisioned Officers lost an irreplaceable individual.

Sincerely, SGT Wolfe

“ SGT Samuel morgan was not only a neighbor, brother in arms, or NCO. He was a friend. A friend whom will be dearly missed. Although I had only known him about 6 months, he was becoming a friend whom I could count on. Together he and I provided access to vital equipment for our company; be it day or night we worked together to make it happen. Although he is gone, he will never be forgotten. Till Valhala sergeant.

“ SGT Samuel Morgan was not only a neighbor, a brother in arms or an NCO. He was a friend. A friend whom I was growing closer to. We worked together to provide access to equipment- day or night. Early, early morning or late, late evening. He was an amazing person, who I miss dearly. Our time was short, but the memories live forever. Rest in peace, sergeant. Till Valhala.
