

Sherryl Denise Sanchez

August 8, 1970 - May 22, 2024

Sherryl Denise Sanchez, born August 8, 1970, in Hobbs New Mexico to parents Thomas and Karen (Long) Strahan, pass away in Walnut Springs, Texas on May 22, 2024. Sherryl was known as “Sherri” to her family and friends, was a chef from 12 years of age, loved food, pairings, seeing others enjoying her food. No one was to leave her table hungry. Sherri was an avid reader of horror, suspense, thrillers, including her favorite ghost stories, crime dramas and dead files. Sherri loved rock and classic rock music listening to her son Michael and brother Clayton playing guitar. She attended Glen Rose High School.

Preceding Sherri in death are her mother Karen Strahan, brother Thomas David Strahan II; sister in-law Rhonda Strahan and niece Tiffany Strahan.

Sherri is survived by daughters, April (Nikki) Sanchez and husband Robert Chase, Sarah B. Sanchez, Katheren Aguilar-Sanchez, son, Michael T. Molder, brother, Clayton Strahan, granddaughter, Isabella Aguilar, grandson, Aiden Guzman, Gabriel Aguilar, Thomas Aguilar, Antonio Aguilar, Alexander Chase, Jack Chase, niece, Constance (Connie) Strahan, nephews, Thomas David Strahan III and Joshua Strahan.

Services will be held privately at a later date.