“ I loved visiting with Virgie. She was my cousin but seemed more like an aunt. She taught me so much about healing, home remedies and holistic healing. I usually can't wait to get off of the phone, bit with her, even 2 hours wasn't enough. I just wish I could enjoy her some more bit I know that we will have lots of joy in heaven.

“ Sending love, hugs, & prayers to the rest of the Robinson family. I'll remember Aunt Virgie as a dedicated wife, unending caregiver to her beloved husband, and a lady who was always cheerful. I remember her loving to tell stories about the farm and "her" animals. You could tell they meant so much to her. May she rest in peace now reunited with her beloved husband, Uncle Dan.

Rita, although I did not know your Mom personally, I know you and you must be much like her. Please accept deepest condolences from Ronnie and me. I just saw this obituary today, long after she passed, but you still have your wonderful memories and thoughts. I am hoping we reconnect since we lost contact after Gaylon died. I'm still in the same location and still have the same landline phone number. Many blessings are wished for you. Hope to hear from you! Mail to the address I had for you was returned this week Unknown. After living there about 50 years? Crazy... Again, our thoughts are with you. Elaine
