“ *I am fortunate enough to be married to one of Vivian's brothers-in-law, Dean Landrum. In 2009 Dean and I renewed our wedding vows and Vivian was gracious enough to travel to Virginia and do a reading during the ceremony. She was so poised and really connected with the congregation. I was so grateful to her for doing that for us. This past May, Donnie, Vivian, Donnie's brother, David, Dean and I all spent a week vacationing in Key West. We had a great time and I think Vivian really enjoyed herself. At the time she knew that something was not right with her health, but she did her best to set her concerns aside and have fun with the rest of us. She and I spent some time alone on the beach one afternoon and she shared her life's story with me. I will never forget that day and hearing about the interesting life she'd led. It was evident to me how much she loved Donnie and the rest of her family. I'm so grateful for that time we got to spend together and I will always remember it and Vivian. Rest in peace, my friend. “ I did not know Vivian well but I do know she brought happiness to her family and my brother Donnie. For that I am thankful. May God bless, protect, and heal her family and all who knew her in this time of remembrance and sorrow.

Vivian you will be missed. Love Dean and Peggy.
