

Wanda Jean Cavitt

October 18, 1927 - September 9, 2024

Wanda Jean Cavitt passed from this life to her heavenly home on September 9, 2024, while residing at the Rehab and Nursing home in Hico, Texas. She was a month away from celebrating her 97th birthday on October 18th. She attributed her long life to never drinking soda and was a “tuffy” outside girl.

Wanda was born in Granbury, Texas in 1927 to parents E.B. Price and Alice Merrill Price. She attended Granbury schools and graduated as salutatorian in 1945. She then attended Weatherford College where she paid her way by washing dishes and doing rather “unpleasant” jobs. She met Robert Cavitt from Duffau, Texas, he proposed to her, sight unseen, in a letter written from California to her at college. They married on December 13, 1947, and added two children to the family, Peggy and James.

Robert later was licensed and ordained into the ministry, and they spent decades serving Baptist churches in Texas and Oklahoma. She found great joy in teaching Sunday school classes and at the age of 89 she helped start a new women’s class. She was a member of the Fairy Baptist Church, and she faithfully read and studied her Bible every day.

Wanda leaves behind her son James Cavitt and wife Freda of Granbury, Texas; daughter Peggy (Barrow) Harrison and husband Edward of Tulsa, Oklahoma; brother E.B. Price, Jr. and wife Billie Lou of Bertram, Texas; four grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; and four great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Robert Cavitt, parents E.B. and Alice Price, sisters Dorothy Price, Catherine Andrews, Maxine Amstutz, Roselle Shelby, and Patsy Armstrong.

Services were held September 12, 2014, at Harvest Hills Funeral Home followed by interment at Duffau Cemetery, with Pastor Bob Ray officiating. Wanda's pallbearers were Kyle Cavitt, Seth Barrow, Aaron Barrow, Auston Barrow and Tyler Hardee.
