“ Being the youngest in our family I have a lot of memories of my brother. When he had his knee replaced Dixie (our sister) and I picked Bill up from the hospital and took him home. Bill was a good size man and he had a long ramp that went up to his house. Sis and I tried to push him up the ramp but it was steep. Poor Bills leg stuck straight out and it kept hitting the posts. We finally got him inside his house we all 3 burst out laughing at the crazy ride he had. Bill had a great sense of humor. I will miss him
